MESSAGE DESK OF THE RSD

KARMANYE VADHIKARASTE, MAPHALESHOUKADA CHANA.

Ms. Satwant Palekar
Regional School Director
Zee Learn Ltd.

Said Lord Krishna in the Bhagwat Gita . According to this Shloka we can only chose our action, not the result. Will Lord Krishna say the same in this 'Kalyug'? In a world that is competitive, where the results are more important than action - will this statement still be true? To ponder on this thought further, just compare the days when we grew up and today when our children are growing in the world where education is multiplying leaps and bounds. It is clear that except external development, education has done nothing for the human race, it may have reduced distances between states and nations, but there are unachievable distances in human relations. Today we are the most insecure - parents don't trust teachers, public don't trust politicians, politicians don't trust bureaucrats and so on. The only relation that remains is of UTILITY - based on individual needs. When need is met, we discard the person. Everyone is enclosed in their little shells where we keep fighting and destroying others for our survival. Today parents and schools are fighting on the street, in the court and in the school premises, so you tell me who is going to solve this problem? Education is partial where in pressure of churning out excellent grades mounts on a child right from the pre primary level, one would be inclined to laugh at the paranoia exhibited by the us as parents and our National obsession " SUCCESS" ,but it is heartbreaking to see the tiny tots deprived of their childhood so early in life! Can Education mean more than that? I mean can Education be more transparent where in human is not divided in the name of caste, creed, nationality and monetary status, where in a human can sustain the environment at large ,can initiate conflict resolution and spread peace all over the world and become a " RESPONSIBLE GLOBAL CITIZEN" , at Mount Litera Zee School, Latur we have laid a greater emphasis on our students to become a global citizen through our curriculum and through our extra curricular activities so that our GEN Y step out confidently into the cauldron of hot water.... THE WORLD and make this world a better place to live in. I extend my best wishes to the staff and students of MLZS, Latur for releasing the first edition of Litera Times, come join the bandwagon and pool in your thought provoking ideas to make a difference in our Education in order to make the teachings of Lord Krishna true and sensitize the world that we care enough to make the change to be Global Citizens.

SAVE WATER SAVE LIFE

Water is very important in day to day life. Water is not only required by human beings but it is necessary for animals, birds and plants. Our day starts with water and ends with water. Rain is the only natural source of water. Due to the less rainfall and more wastage of water, an acute shortage of water is created in planet Earth. So it is necessary for us to plant more and more trees to attract rainfall.

Government of India is promoting "Plantation Program" by providing free seeds and small plants which require less water, and encouraging the mass to plant as many plants as they can. Decrease in the amount of rainfall decreases the water level of the earth. But the existence of human beings come to a stake without water. The diurnal chores gets hampered in the absence of water and the food chain is also disturbed. The plants get dried up and their growth is hindered. Without water, there will be a scarcity of food and it will be impossible to live, thus making the earth lose its uniqueness. So it is high time to alert ourselves and stop the misuse and overuse of water, if we want to survive.

We should minimize our water usage and start planting trees. We should promote the concept of "Afforestation" and "Van Mahotsava". We should use sprinklers in the farms to grow crops. Drip irrigation is another method which we can use in farms to save water. It is the responsibility of every citizen to save water and thus to save life.

INDIA TODAY - INDIA TOMORROW

In today's era of global warming, afforestation is the need of the hour. With the reduction in the amount of rainfall, drought prevails in today's world leading to problems like crop failure and food crisis. Crop failure leads to an economical instability in the life of the farmers and affects the economy most. Keeping in mind the present scenario, it is necessary to undertake the "Plantation Drive" and concepts like "Afforestation" to save our mother earth. We can definitely transform our world into a "Green world", if we undergo the measures of afforestation and thus we can go green too.

MY DREAM

Dream is a mystery, we cannot guess which dream we will see and what will happen in the dream. In dream anything can happen like we have become the president of the country.... We have become aliens, animals, etc.

Many people say that the things on which we think a lot comes in our dream, but I think there is nothing like that. I want to share one of my dream, which I have seen last night.

I was going with my friends to play, we played a lot and when we were returning, suddenly one of my friend threw ball in one neighbour's house and one man came out of the house running.

Penning Down Their Thoughts

He had large stick in his hand, after looking to that man my friends started running from there..... I have also tried to run but unluckily .... I felt down.... I was so afraid.... That man was about to beat me...but before that would happen my mother woke me up.....thank god.....really it was really a horrible dream.

IMPORTANCE OF TREES

A wood cutter named Jagan lived in a small hut. He was very poor. He had four members in his family. His wife used to work in some nearby houses and earned little money. Jagan had two daughters. He loved his family very much. He used to go to the forest, cut old and dry trees and come back empty handed. He did not like to cut green trees for sake of money. One day when he came back without any wood from the forest, his daughter asked, "Dear father! Why did you not cut any tree even though there were so many green trees in forest". Jagan said, "I don't like to cut the trees because trees give oxygen and fresh air. The daughter said "What is fresh air?" Jagan said You are too little to understand this but I will tell u.....actually we take oxygen and release carbon dioxide .....suddenly, his another daughter interrupted and said "oh! Please first tell us the importance of trees."

Then Jagan said..."The trees make our environment healthy and check storms and floods. We can make beautiful furniture from trees and papers". Then both daughters said "Now we have understood the importance of trees....so, father please don't cut the trees.
